

SHOT MAN, THEN DROVE ON HOME

Colored Boy Grabs Old Gun
From Wagon When Enemy
Kept Chasing Him.

After being chased last night around and around his wagon, which he had stopped at Brook Avenue and Leigh Street, and fearing for his life, John Epps, a colored boy seventeen years old, snatched an old pistol from the wagon seat, and fired at his pursuer, Jim Hill. The bullet found its mark, crashing through Hill's left thigh and smashing both bones. The negro fell limply to the ground, and Epps jumped into his wagon and drove rapidly away.

He was arrested shortly afterwards at his home by Detective Kregel. He offered no resistance, and said that he was preparing to surrender himself. The boy stated that there had been bad blood between himself and Hill for some time, and that they had had frequent encounters. Once he had been forced to strike Hill with a bottle, and the latter smashed his nose and blacked his eyes in return.

Last night, as the two met again, Hill is alleged to have said "Now I've got you." Epps then jumped at Epps. The boy ran around his wagon until he became tired and saw that the pursuit would soon end and that he would be caught. Then it was that he thought of his pistol.

Hill was badly wounded, and as the city ambulance was on another call he was taken to the City Hospital in a carriage. There he was placed in care of Dr. Simmerman.

Northern Neck News.
Lancaster, Va., June 20.—A pretty marriage took place last week in Whitestone Methodist Church, when Miss Pearl Adams, daughter of Mrs. Fannie Adams of Whitestone, was married to B. F. Dierdorf, formerly of Pittsburgh, Pa., but for several years past a government official in Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wayland F. Dunaway, D. D., of the Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. J. D. Hoxier, of the Methodist Church. After a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dierdorf took the Appalachian steamer for Baltimore and other Eastern cities. On their return they will reside at Kensington, Md.

Aubin Dulaney Tapscott, who died last week at his home in Fredericksburg, was a native of Lancaster county, and served throughout the War of Secession in the Lancaster Cavalry, rising to the rank of lieutenant. He was a brother of Mrs. Tunstall Pierce and an uncle of Joseph and Dr. C. T. Pierce, of this county, and an uncle also of Mrs. W. Meade Clark, of Richmond.

Dr. and Mrs. Chichester T. Pierce, near Nutsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Gresham, near this place, entertained a number of young folks at their hospitable homes during the past week.

Ralph and Cyrus Chilton, students of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and Mrs. Clarence Dunaway, of Richmond, arrived here yesterday, and are at the home of their father, William Chilton, clerk of the Circuit Court of Lancaster.

The Democratic Committee of Northumberland county met last week and set Tuesday, September 7, as the date for holding the primary election to select candidates for district and county officers, as well as for members of the General Assembly and the United States Senate. A fee of $6 was levied on each candidate for the General Assembly and for county officers. Notice was given that a meeting would be held at the August term of the court to organize the party.

The Democratic Committee of Lancaster county, it is thought, will not order a primary election for county and district officers, but will let these candidates have a free fight before the people.

HORNER MILITARY SCHOOL
OXFORD, N. C.
For over 60 years this school has trained young men to be of strong body, active mind and high ideals. Character first here. Our graduates are our best recommendation. Our location is remarkable for healthfulness, natural beauty and freedom from bad influences. While the discipline is military, a strong home atmosphere prevails. Every boy receives individual attention. Healthy athletes encouraged.
This school is endorsed by Governor Kilmer, Va-Governor Glenn, Ex-Congressman Skinner, Gen. Julian S. Carr, Chief Justice Walter Clark, North Carolina.
